

i A S P I R E

Armed Forces

Marc

Marc left Catcote Academy in 2006. At the academy Marc studied catering and also gained internal work experience working in the coffee shop. He then progressed on to Hartlepool College of FE where he studied an NVQ Level 1 & 2 in Catering and Hospitality.

After successfully completing his qualifications, he gained a full time position as a Chef working in a variety of restaurants. Marc really wanted to explore the world and different cultures and therefore joined the British Army in 2015. After completion of his basic training, he passed out and was offered a position of Chef within the 2nd Battalion of the Yorkshire Regiment. He has since been promoted to Lance Corporal based within the 3rd Royal Horse Artillery regiment. He has travelled to many countries including Austria, Germany, Kenya, Morocco and Estonia.